DEE-LIGHTFUL.

Was the First Medal Contest of the W. C. T. U. Monday Evening.

Again have our people been thrilled, inspired and lifted up by an evening with the children—the source of all our hopes and joys, the source of our country's future success and happiness. It was enough to touch the hearts of any...

Great and unstinted praise is due Miss Mary Cherry, Mrs. Jno. M. Carson, Mrs. Noah Daugherty, Mrs. D. A. Kelley, Mrs. Dr. J. H. Austin, Mrs. W. R. Dabbs, Mrs. Annie Tanner and each and every member of the W. C. T. U., for such an excellent entertainment. The contestants were little Misses Eula Haynes, Ruby Howard and Birdie Daugherty and Masters Preston Cherry, Rawdon Bradley and Geo. D. Prentice Scott. So excellent was the part of each contestant rendered that the decision of the judges was a most trying and difficult task, and was probably only reached on the theory of the lover: "How delightful each charmer when the other dear charmer is away." The show lawyer always wants the last speech.

Upon this theory the first contestants before the audience are always at a slight disadvantage. At any rate the children acquitted themselves in a way to make not only their parents, but every citizen of our town and county proud of them. The judges were Mr. W. A. Kelley, Prof. D. Y. Ragan and Prof. L. M. Gary, who after deliberating for some time awarded the medal to Geo. D. Prentice Scott, son of Prof. G. P. Scott, announcing that second place was a tie between Misses Ruby Howard and Birdie Daugherty. The decision met with the hearty approval of the audience which went wild with enthusiasm.

The music and singing by the trained choir led by Mr. Jno. W. Frizzell was soul-stirring and contributed largely to the success of the evening. But after all is said and done would you know the cause and source of all this wonderful improvement in developing the latent talents of our young people? Some of the speakers might have given you a hint. A little modest, unassuming woman sat in that great audience whose very soul was moved up in every word and movement of the contestants as they came before the audience. It is to her a medal of thanks and praise is due. She whose patient and untiring labor has worked a revolution in our midst, Miss Hallye Hudson, whose impress will be left on the lives of our young people, not only with regard to their talents, but on their characters for purity and righteousness.

ALL IS READY AND GREAT

The grand distinctive entertainment formerly scheduled for Tuesday evening, May 16, will be held at the Union Church, Monday evening, May 15, 1911. The change from Tuesday evening to Monday evening was deemed advisable on account of so many people who attend Circuit Court on Monday remaining in town Monday night, and who will attend the entertainment. From all indications and preparations this entertainment will be the most artistic and elaborate production of the kind ever witnessed by the people of Butler county. Enthusiasm is at fever heat in every section of the county and it is predicted that a record breaking crowd will be in attendance. The speakers have thoroughly prepared for the occasion and are ready to render the following program:

- Music.
- Introductory—Prof. Jno. H. Payne.
- Recitation, "Salvador"—Miss Ferold Taylor.
- Music.

- Music.
- Oration, "The Spirit of America 1911"—Mr. Estill W. Neal.

The music will be furnished by the excellent trained orchestra composed of Miss Corinne Morehead, pianist; Geo. H. Dabbs, cornetist; J. C. Phelps, 1st violin; E. T. Dockery, 2nd violin; Willie Kuykendall, drummer. The music will be one delightful feature of the evening. Their aid will make the occasion a grand success.

Everybody who possibly can should attend. Come and let this be the stimulus that will open in your nature the purest, deepest, richest gush of consecrated enthusiasm. Marvellous paintings of Washington and Lincoln intertwined with the Stars and Stripes of Old Glory" will be there. The moral grandeur of the occasion will strike every chord of the human heart and fill with enchantment every fibre of the soul.

Death Claims Good Citizen.

"Uncle Tump" Simpson, of Warren county, near Woodbury, died Tuesday, the 9th, at 11 o'clock a. m.

FIRST GROWN IN THIS COUNTY.

The Ben Davis Apples were first grown by the Rev. Ben Davis in the county of Butler, state of Kentucky, who was the paternal grandfather after whom our worthy citizen, the Hon. James Davis Hines, of Bowling Green, was named, and who was either the son or grandson of Benjamin Davis, of the county of Culpeper, State of Virginia, who held a lease on the ground on which the present town of Culpeper now stands, for the record reads as follows: "In February, 1759, Act of the General Assembly of the Colony of Virginia, established the town of Fairfax (now Culpeper) on a high and pleasant situation in the county of Culpeper, where the courthouse now stands, and set apart thirty acres of Robert Coleman's land to be laid off in lots by the trustees, Wm. Green, Philip Clayton, Nat. Pendleton and William Williams.

"This land was held by Benjamin Davis, lessee of Robt. Coleman, who was permitted to hold his houses and have one-fifth of his rent deducted." Hence the name of Davis and Coleman streets—the former of which is the municipal thoroughfare of the town to this good day.

Without doubt on account of the annoyance and discomfort resulting from the enforced cancellation of the above lease Benjamin Davis did as so many other sons of Culpeper have since done came to Kentucky and with him came the apple scion that has made his name famous over the United States. The state of Missouri has some 30,000,000 apple trees, of which seventy-five per cent. equal to twenty-two and one-half million, are Ben Davis.

Facts About Motherhood

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or properly cared for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at the time of child-birth, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when the strains over her system has received a shock for which it is hard to recover.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and individual birth under right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, still will persist in going blindly to the trial.

It isn't as though the experience came upon them unawares. They have ample time in which to prepare, but they, for the most part, trust to chance and pay the penalty.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes woman normal, healthy, and strong.

Any woman who would like special advice in regard to this matter is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. Her letter will be held in strict confidence.

WHEN A MAN MARRIES

BY MARY ROBERTS RINEHART AUTHOR OF THE CIRCULAR STAIRCASE "THE MAN IN LOWER TEN, ETC.

James Wilson or Jimmy as he is called by his friends, Jimmy was round and looked stouter than he really was. His ambition in life was to be taken seriously, but people usually took him for a joke.

"Open that door or we will break it in!" Dallas put his hands in his pockets, seated himself on the table, and whistled cheerfully. We could hear them conferring outside, and they made audibly. Suddenly Bella came over and confronted Dallas.

"They have brought them back," she said dramatically. "They are out there now; I distinctly heard Jim's voice. Open that door, Dallas!"

"Think what a solution it is to all our difficulties," he said, easily. "Without Aunt Selma I could be happy here indefinitely."

"There was more knocking and somebody—Max, I think—said to let them in, that it was a fool thing any boy, and that he wanted to go to bed and forget it; his feet were cold. And just then there was a crash, and part of one of the windows fell in.

"It was a transparent plot on Bella's part. Two elderly ladies, house wiles from anywhere, long evenings in the music-room with an open fire and Bella at the harp playing the two songs she knows."

Jim jerked the shade down and un-solicited Aunt Selma's legs so that she could walk off without being stalked past us and upon our heads.

Suspicion and Discard. Every one was rusty the next morning. Aunt Selma declared that her feet were frost bitten and kept Bella rubbing them with ice-water all morning.

It was all well enough for Jim to say later that he didn't dare to have the canvases moved, for he had stuck behind them all sorts of ebsous girl photographs and life-class crayons that were not for Aunt Selma's eyes.

Those who try to do without recreation find pay the penalty in arrested development, says Orion Sweet Marden, in Success Magazine. They dry up. Their lives become futile and uninteresting. They do not get rid of the brain-rash from one day to another and the monotony of using the same faculties a great many hours each day without change or diversion will soon so deteriorate the mind that it will lose its elasticity, its power to rebound, and the brain will operate in a perfunctory manner.

Thomas Sulls Up.

Congressman R. Y. Thomas claims that Caleb Powers is "butting in" and interfering in this district and proceeds to call Mr. Powers down in a published statement.

A Washington special to the Courier-Journal says:

Representative R. Y. Thomas, Jr., of the Third District, sees in a letter written by Representative Caleb Powers, of the Eleventh District, to R. S. Rives, of Morgantown, an attempt by Powers to invade Thomas' district. Mr. Thomas received a clipping from the Green River Republican, published at Morgantown, containing the letter in which Powers wrote:

"This Democratic House has decided not to let even their own members pass any pension legislation at this session of Congress. A little later I propose to introduce a bill in your behalf anyway, and fight it out the best I can."

Mr. Thomas was hot about the letter.

"In invading my District Powers will find he is not as popular there as in the Eleventh district, even among the Republicans," said Mr. Thomas. "It is not true that this Democratic House has made any unusual or specific decision. There never was an extra session in which local legislation such as pensions was handled. We sat from March 15, to August 15, in 1909, with the House, Senate and White House Republican and not a pension bill was passed. This is the rule and this session is no departure from it."

General Sherwood, of Ohio, a Federal soldier, is chairman of the Invalid Pension Committee. Its clerks are making "syllabi" and next session they will be taken up and the worthy ones passed. Powers could have learned these facts if he had inquired, as I have no doubt he did before he wrote the letter.

"The old soldiers in my district know," concluded Mr. Thomas, "that I have passed more pension legislation for them than any Congressman from that district since the Civil War. As for Rives, I introduced a bill for him repeatedly and failed to pass it because he could not show the proofs required."

Keerful Bob, so you bust! Don't you know the Cup Green-ville town, when Bob read Caleb's letter?

STATE CROP REPORT FOR APRIL.

Frankfort, Ky., May 3.—The report of the condition of crops in Kentucky for April, as sent out by the State Department of Agriculture, is as follows:

Although the month of April has been warm and the conditions of the weather for growing crops favorable, yet on account of the excessive rainfall generally throughout the State and the floods which have been reported from different sections of the State, farm work and farming have been greatly retarded, and the crops planted in the Spring are at least two weeks late in the State generally, and in some sections a month late.

The winter months and the Spring have so favored the fall and winter sown crops that they are in extraordinary condition, and will, with a good season, equal, if not exceed, the crop of last year.

The condition of wheat, as compared with last year, shows: First Agricultural district, 97 per cent; second agricultural district, 97 per cent; third agricultural district, 102 per cent; fourth agricultural district, 95 per cent; fifth agricultural district, 95 per cent, or a general average of 97 per cent for the State, which is very good, since the present crop is being compared with the crop of last year, which was an exceptional year for wheat.

Open Winter Helped.

This exceptional condition is due to the fact that we have had a very open winter and a wet spring, which are very favorable to wheat. The same thing is true of the condition of the rye crop of the State.

The condition of rye, as compared with last year, shows an average of 91 per cent, for the State, which is also an extraordinary crop, due to the same causes as are given above for the wheat crop.

Condition of clover, as compared with last year, shows an average of 82 per cent, for the State.

This report shows that the clover is in fine condition, and that with an average season for the remainder of the year we may expect not only a good crop, but one in excess of last year.

With all the work that the department has been doing to encourage the farmer's to sow alfalfa, we find that more than half of the counties of the State fail to report any alfalfa in the county. Our reports show that where it has been tried that a good stand has been secured and that good results are obtained.

Alfalfa Growing Urged.

With alfalfa growing in every county in the State we could revolutionize Kentucky in one year. And we can have it if we but try our experiments in the right way and follow the advice sent out from this office from time to time.

The condition of alfalfa as compared with last year, shows a general average for the State of 94 per cent.

From our reports made by the county crop reporters we find that the prospects for a crop crop for this year as compared with last year shows an average for the State of 99 per cent. This means that we are to expect a good acreage of corn and with an average season we will have a good yield.

The prospects for an oat crop as shown by our reports indicate as good a crop as last year, if not better. This report on oats should be remembered to compare with last year, which was the best oat crop we have had in Kentucky for years.

The acreage of potatoes as compared with last year shows an average of 98 per cent for the State. The season thus far has been very favorable for potatoes.

Decrease in Tobacco Crop.

The prospective acreage of Burley tobacco as compared with last year shows a decrease. The average for the State is 73 per cent.

The prospective acreage of Dark tobacco as compared with last year shows a decided decrease. The average acreage is at 29 per cent.

The wet weather has greatly retarded the preparation of the ground for tobacco and in some sections the plants were damaged by the frosts.

The prospects for a peach crop as compared with last year shows a decrease, not more than a half crop is expected.

The prospect for blackberry, strawberry, raspberry crops is good. From these reports it will be seen that the small fruits have not been damaged from the cold weather, as were the peaches and apples. With an average season we may expect more than an average crop of small fruit this year.

The condition of the live stock throughout the State is very encouraging. The stock wintered well and shows a remarkably good average for this time of the year.

A very important feature in the farming for the livestock is the spring pasture, which always comes in when either the supply of food is nearly exhausted or when the stock needs most the "change of food." The condition of the spring pastures shows an average of 93 per cent.
